2 What We Heard
What We Heard

PLAN: Mattapan | Revisting the Future of Mattapan’s Corridors
The majority of participants were comfortable with medium- and high-density scenarios when they achieved their desired housing and public realm needs.

As you may recall, in February we asked you to balance community benefits with the necessary density. Greater density generally means more community benefits.

High-Density Corridor Scenario: Greater Community Benefits

Density, Use, and Benefits:
- Primary use apartments with commercial with triple decker style as a buffer
- This level of density would provide greater benefits such as affordable housing and streetscape improvements

Medium-Density Corridor Scenario: Moderate Community Benefits

Density, Use, and Benefits:
- More of an even distribution of apartments with commercial and triple decker style
- This density provides moderate affordable housing with some additional parking for the neighborhood.

Where Should Density Fall on the Corridor?

Based on what we heard in February, the planning team thinks the highest density scenarios should be concentrated in the red areas, medium-density should be in the orange areas, and low-density corridor development should be in the yellow areas.
Where Should Density Fall on the Corridor?

High-Density Scenarios should be located at major nodes in Mattapan like Mattapan Square and the intersection of Blue Hill Avenue and Morton Street. These areas have the widest street widths and most access to businesses in Mattapan.
Where Should Density Fall on the Corridor?

We assume Medium-Density Scenarios will primarily connect the nodes on Blue Hill Avenue and Morton Street. They could also be found at certain nodes along Cummins Highway and River Street.
Where Should Density Fall on the Corridor?

Because River Street is primarily residential properties with 2-3 families, we assume that Lower-Density Scenarios will be concentrated on this corridor. We could also envision more lower density scenarios along Cummins Highway.
Where do you want to see different densities?

In your break out groups, we will discuss where you envision these high-, medium-, and low-density scenarios existing in Mattapan. Keep in mind some of the primary factors when considering density: context, street widths, proximity.

Things to Consider Regarding Density

Context:
What does the surrounding area look like? Does the proposed scale make sense compared to what exists today?

Blue Hill Ave and Almont St

Street Widths:
Streets that are wider can take on taller buildings than streets that are narrower.

Boylston St, Fenway

Proximity to Transit and Other Amenities:
Residential buildings that have ground floor amenities like retail, grocers, or restaurants tend to be larger because it is more economical. People also like to be closer to these amenities and others like transit.

Starting around July 24th we are testing a calmer, safer traffic design. There will be one driving lane in each direction, turn lanes will remain.
