

Neighborhood Character Workshop

A Walking Tour Exploring Open Space,
Public Realm, and Climate Resiliency

July 31, 2018, 5:30-7:30PM
Rain Date: Aug. 2, 2018

Neighborhood Character Workshop

Today's workshop is to talk about what neighborhood character will look like in the future and how we can prepare Glover's Corner for climate change. At three stations, we want your ideas on:

- neighborhood character and building heights;
- sidewalks and open space; and
- climate resiliency.

Homebase at the Boys and Girls Club

Stop by the City Hall to Go Truck at the Boys and Girls Club to see where we are in the planning process.

Stop 1 at Bay St and S Sydney St

What could new small-scale buildings and streets look like in Glover's Corner?

Stop 2 at Dorchester Ave and Auckland St

How can we prepare Glover's Corner for climate change and what would you like to see in a new linear open space?

Stop 3 at Dorchester Ave and Hancock St

What could Dorchester Ave and new medium-scale buildings look like?
